

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN
SOUTHERN DIVISION

In re:

Case No. 15-47213

CHERIE DIANE BURTON,

Chapter 7

Debtor.

Judge Thomas J. Tucker

ORDER DISMISSING CASE

On May 7, 2015, the Court entered an Order entitled “Order Regarding Improper Joinder of Debtors” (Docket # 8, the “May 7 Order”), which provided, in relevant part:

[N]o later than 7 days after the entry of this Order, the individual Debtor in this case must file an amended bankruptcy petition that removes all reference to any limited liability company, so that it is clear that this entity has not filed bankruptcy in this case. If the individual Debtor wishes to list in her individual schedules creditors whose debts are primarily the obligation of this entity, but with respect to which Debtor feels she might be also personally liable, nothing prevents her from listing those debts and the creditors in her schedules.

Further, no later than 7 days after the entry of this Order, Debtor must serve on all creditors: (1) a copy of this Order; (2) a copy of the amended petition; and (3) a notice stating that the only debtor in this case is the individual. Debtor then must file a proof of such service, also no later than 7 days after the entry of this Order.

If Debtor does not timely comply with all of the above requirements, the Court may dismiss this case, without further notice or hearing.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Debtor did not comply with any of the requirements in the May 7 Order.

Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED that this bankruptcy case is dismissed.

Signed on May 18, 2015
